

SLASHING OF FITZGERALD IN THE PRIMARIES THE SENSATION OF YESTERDAY'S VOTING.

support him in the primaries as they wish to retain their Democratic enrollment. The Fitzgerald partisans were very much disturbed by the Conithurst endorsement offered by Democrats in this manner.

Republicans said that the defeat of Alderman Bergin in the Ninth District Republican primary reflected the strength of the revolt against Fitzgeraldism. Bergin has been acting chairman of the Board of Aldermen all the year and one

The rumor that Coulturst was being voted for so extensively in Democratic primaries as to endanger the re-nomination of the most active members of the body, but it is believed he was beaten for re-nomination principally because he is considered, justly or unjustly, a Republican friend of the Mayor.

The Coulturst vote in the Democratic primaries was a complete surprise. Its significance is added to by its spontaneity.

It appears that a great body of voters scattered all over Boston, simultaneously, took it into their minds to write in Connelley's name.

Politicians are asking to-day, "What would have happened to Fitzgerald if there had been in every ward an organized movement of voters to write in the name of Connelley against him?" But although there was a big Democratic vote for the latter, but comparatively few of the Democratic votes will be counted for him. This is due to the fact that but a small proportion writing in the name of a candidate, his full name and full address must be given. Many just wrote "Conithurst" and omitted

The cutting of Fitzgerald indicates that a large number of Democrats took the advice given by the BOSTON AMERICAN.

MAN CRUSHED

MAN CRUSHED DEAD BY WAGON

Timothy Crane had his head crushed by a wagon wheel in the yard of the old cordage works at No. 741 East Sixth street, South Boston, to-day, and was instantly killed. He was leading a horse drawing a lumber laden wagon into the yard when he stepped on a stone and fell. The wheel passed over his head before he could move.

Crane lived on Ward street, Roxbury, and was employed as a teamster by James Noble. His body was taken to the City Hospital morgue.

The accompanying letter shows Mr. Singer's offer. The telegram shows the price at which we closed the deal.

This well-known New York tailor, forced to liquidate at once, has sold us his entire portion of this stock of high-grade lamé, tailored suits and overcoats, enabling us to offer Saturday EVEN GREATER BARGAINS THAN OUR PHENOMENAL SALES FOR THE PAST MONTH, in Men's Suits and Overcoats for dress, business, school or college wear.

AT EXACTLY

These are clearance prices and are not to be used for any other purpose.

AT EXACTLY HALF PRICE

The backward Winter weather and stringent money market in New York and other great cities, caused numerous cancellations of orders for the firm of "Singer & Sisler," altogether causing a dissolution of partnership and the liquidation of Harry Singer's entire portion of the stock, which we finally purchased at 50c on the dollar, as shown in the above ledger. We consider this the greatest purchase and sale of the season.

Fifty extra salespeople! Extra space and out entire men's and boys' clothing department will concentrate every effort to accommodate the tremendous response to the phenomenal bargains in this great sale.

LANDSLIDE OF MAJOR; NAME THE TRIMMER

Cartoon Letters Give Fitzgerald
Big Majority Over All Others Combined.
NOVEL CONTEST STILL ON

These "Trimmer" letters continue to pour into the office of the Boston American.

"Who is this Trimmer?" was asked over the cartoon that showed an energetic hand without up air of sheets and hoarsely engaged in clipping off campaign pledges, broken promises and letters doled.

Boston got busy with the answer. Study of the cartoon seemed to select one person in the city as the most promising candidate for ownership of the busy-trimming hand.

John F. Fitzgerald, Mayor of Boston, leads all others.

The majority of the answers was surprising. There were a few others who were selected as being possessed of the necessary qualifications to own the hand labelled "The Trimmer," but they were very few.

Here are some of the latest.

"Cut and Shaved Fearlessly."
Editor BOSTON AMERICAN:
The answer to your question, "Who is the Trimmer?" is very plain.

In John B. Moran. Who is all of the city officials dared to show his hand or lift the sheets to cut the Trimmer. He has the many tags with which they are fastened. Who else has? He has the broken to the end, cutting and shuffling fearlessly at disfigurement.

Three cheers for John B. Moran.

W. H. WILKINSON.
No. 135 Warren avenue.

"Not the Hand of Moran."
Editor BOSTON AMERICAN:
In regard to the hand behind the sheets that is doing the trimming, it can be no other than the hand of John F. Fitzgerald, which will be made known at the next election, when he will be elected Mayor of Boston.

John F. Fitzgerald, who will be elected Mayor of Boston, who will be elected Mayor of Boston, who will be elected Mayor of Boston.

W. H. WILKINSON.

WHO IS THIS TRIMMER?

$10 Reward for the Best Answer.

Make your letters short. Tell us who you think it is and why you think so. Sign your name and address.

Ward 6 Remembers.
Editor BOSTON AMERICAN:
From my point of view the hand is Mayor John F. Fitzgerald. I know of a number of promises given to voters of Ward 6, but they were all but air. His bodyguards got them down. As for the hand behind the sheets, it is the hand of John F. Fitzgerald. Can you show me any important campaign pledge he ever gave?

HALLOWED CONTRACTS FAVORED BY ARMY

LETTERS READ AT FINANCE HEARING SHOW
COMPETITIVE BIDS WERE STIFLED.

The Mayor John F. Fitzgerald made acceptance with regard to the general of certain contracts to building contracts William J. Hallinan, who is believed to have been associated in business with Senator Frank J. Lincoln, that Lincoln drew money for work on the Common from the city on orders issued to Hallinan and that Lincoln deposited Hallinan's checks in his personal account and drew against the deposits, some of the interesting things brought out at the session of the Boston Finance Commission last night during its investigation of financial dealings with the city.

Records reveal the story of the depositing of the Hallinan checks and letters were read from Mayor Fitzgerald to the late William Douglas, superintendent of public buildings, in which the Mayor declared that he had no objection to the work being done so long as it was being done on the city's account.

Fall to Locate Hallinan.
City Engineer Jackson told the committee that he would have been working for and with Mr. Adams, a contractor, testified that Adams, Lincoln, who was an alderman at the time Hallinan got certain contracts, had him out on "heat" on these contracts.

The committee will next examine the Hallinan. The work was done in the city and the Mayor said that he had no objection to the work being done so long as it was being done on the city's account.

Ordered Money Paid to Lincoln.
He also read an invoice of $100,000 for the city in the office dated August 28, 1902, which read:

"Frank J. Lincoln is authorized to receive in his name all moneys due to the city for work done on the city's account. He is authorized to draw on the city's account for the same." William J. Hallinan, Mayor of Boston, dated August 28, 1902.

Another check for $100,000 was read from the Mayor's office, dated August 28, 1902, which read:

"The amount of money due to the city for work done on the city's account is $100,000. It is ordered that the same be paid to the city's account." William J. Hallinan, Mayor of Boston, dated August 28, 1902.

Starvation Sits At Loaded Tables

You Can Lead a Dyspeptic to the Table, but You Cannot Make Him Eat.

There comes a time in the lives of a great many men and women when even a siren steak ceases to be poetry. It becomes a protest. "The dyspeptic sits at the loaded table and fretful, looking on the bill of fare with a sick heart. He is a man of a mere matter of machinery—the stomach does not work. The stomach has been worked over and the body and the brain are paying the penalty.

There are thousands of people in every station of life who are waiting use earth today with dyspeptic stomachs. They wear a disfigured, poor appearance, their energy is a zero, nothing interests them, and they interest no one. Their faces are shrunk, their nerves are withered and their shoulders sag.

What is it When Only the Whole World—and Lungs Are Appetite?

Everything on the table may look delicious, but nothing is digestible. That's one sure sign of dyspepsia. If you have ever felt limited after eating and imagined it was your food that blotted you, if you have felt your food in "like a lump of lead" in your stomach, if you have had a bad, sour breath, difficulty in swallowing after a meal, suffered from eructations, burning sensations, heartburn, brass, or gas on the stomach, make up your mind you have dyspepsia. And the chances are you have had it a long time.

Your stomach is overworked, mangled, fogged out. The gastric and digestive juices are weak, the muscles of the stomach are jaded, and the whole business needs new life. It needs something which will take hold of the food as it comes in and do the digesting, and let your stomach take a rest.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do just the very thing. They contain a most powerful ingredient which helps the stomach in the process of digestion, acidity or fermentation. They invigorate the stomach, increase the flow of gastric juice, and do two-thirds of what the stomach would have to do without them. That gives the stomach some rest, and a chance to rest again.

You will feel the change first in your mind and heart and then in your whole body. You'll feel rest and sweet. That's the first sign you can get these effective little tablets almost anywhere on earth for 50c a package.

Send us your name and address to-day and we will at once send you a mail sample package free. Address: F. A. Stuart Co., 116 Street Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

BRYAN ANNOUNCES HE WILL TAKE NOMINATION

DEMOCRATIC PARTY ENTITLED TO STATEMENT OF HIS POSITION, HE DECLARES.

By Boston American Special Wire.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 15.—William Jennings Bryan will accept the Democratic nomination for President in 1908, but he will neither ask nor make a fight for it. He says that for a year or more he has been pressed to answer the question: "Will you accept a nomination?" and he has been unable to do so. He has been unable to do so because the people he is entitled to an answer, and he knows the position he occupies.

The question that ought to weigh most on his mind is whether his nomination will strengthen the Democratic party more than the nomination of some one else. No one will ask him to make a fight for it. He will not make a fight for it. He will not make a fight for it. He will not make a fight for it.

Mr. Bryan's Position.

In his announcement Mr. Bryan says: "Now that the election of 1907 is past and plans are being made for next year's campaign, Mr. Bryan feels that a statement should be made to the public. He feels that he should make a statement to the public. He feels that he should make a statement to the public."

Those who prefer another candidate are entitled to know his position, and those who favor his nomination have a right to demand an answer to the question: "Will you accept a nomination?" and he has been unable to do so. He has been unable to do so because the people he is entitled to an answer, and he knows the position he occupies.

Mr. Bryan will not ask for so much nomination, and will not assume to do so. He will not assume to do so. He will not assume to do so. He will not assume to do so.

WHOLE WORLD OF SPORTS COVERED FOR THE BOSTON AMERICAN BY HARLAN, PRINCETON'S GREAT KICKER.

Which team is going to win the big day bike race at the Park Square rink is a question that is being asked by the big crowd of spectators who are gathered at the rink today. The fifth of the card of the long grand, the situation is such that the winner is a question that no one can see.

At the recent Champion Elitist Hunt and the prize, Harlan, were the prize favorites, but lately the other teams have been coming in strong and the Boston team has displayed certain signs of distress. It is almost a foregone conclusion that the team of the day will win, while the team of the day will win, while the team of the day will win.

FOURTH DAY SCORE.

|                 | Miles. | Laps. |
|-----------------|--------|-------|
| Rob-Barrette    | 768    | 0     |
| Moran-Pogler    | 768    | 0     |
| McLean-Krebs    | 768    | 0     |
| Downing-Miller  | 768    | 0     |
| Keegan-Mitten   | 768    | 0     |
| Wiley-Anderson  | 768    | 0     |
| Limberg-Shawlow | 767    | 9     |
| Holbrook-Galvin | 767    | 9     |
| Connolly-Wyatt  | 767    | 8     |
| Bizzardi-Hill   | 768    | 0     |

He then jumped his head against the hind truck. He felt considerable of his hind legs and appeared as badly off as his partner, Harlan, who was nearly killed the first of the week. One of the sensational periods of yesterday's riding came in the upper hour, when the attendance was at its utmost, but the day on the track was the hottest of the week.

Lap Almost Stolen. Moran, the trouble maker, was really the cause of it all, when he saw Harlan at a distance ahead of him and gave chase. When Moran and Harlan were close together, Moran was out from a quiet rest as the chase was on. He was not to be outdone, and he was not to be outdone, and he was not to be outdone.

It was a desperate battle while it lasted, every second bringing forth hard fighting. In the first round he was not to be outdone, and he was not to be outdone, and he was not to be outdone.

BY ITS CORPS OF EXPERTS HARLAN, PRINCETON'S GREAT KICKER.

Confident of at least scoring on Harvard and perhaps defeating her, Dartmouth's football squad will arrive in the city at 5 o'clock this afternoon. The Harvard team will be quartered at the Copsey Square Hotel.

Harvard's last scrimmage was in perfect form. No one was out of order in Cambridge that the visitors will see to-morrow. There is little doubt that the Harvard team will be quartered at the Copsey Square Hotel.

DRAGON RACERS TO GO AFTER BIG AUTO RECORDS

BY J. G. KERRISON. It is now definitely settled that one of the races built for the Dragon Automobile Company will be put into commission and tested out preliminary to a racing campaign next year. In beach, road and track racing. The campaign will begin with the Grand Beach meeting, at which the Flying Dragon will be seen in strongest form on all the heavy weight records. The car is rated at 200 horsepower and is built along the design by Charles L. Kessner, who was specially retained to construct the three racing cars. As a certain racer to the Chicago Automobile Show, when open November 30, the Chicago Automobile Club will conduct its 500-mile reliability test, covering three zones of approximately 150 miles each. The test will be run by the 1000-mile trophy, a study in bronze, depicting speed of a car and driver.
